Whitehall, Auguſt 3.

BY Order of the Right Honourable the Lords and others, her Majeſty's Commiſſioners for receiving and diſpoſing of the Mony to be collected for the Subſiſtance and Settlement of the poor Palatines; Notice is hereby given, That they having determined to ſend five hundred Families of the ſaid Palatines with their Goods to Ireland by way of Cheſter, they will allow Seven Shillings for the Carriage of every hundred weight to Cheſter; and will be ready every Day at their Committee, to contract with any Perſons that are willing to be employed in carrying the ſame.

Notice is hereby likewiſe given, That all Perſons concerned in collecting the Mony on the Brief for the relief of the ſaid Palatines, are hereby required to collect the ſame by a Book or Books, marked and ſigned by the Miniſter and Church-wardens of the reſpective Pariſhes; and to enter therein the Names of the Contributors, and the Sum by them ſeverally given in Words at length, at the time the ſame is given, and to caſt up on each Page of every Leaf the total Sum, and to Subſcribe the ſame on each Page with the Hand of the Miniſter, Church-wardens, or ſuch other principal Inhabitant as attends the ſaid Collection.

Notice is hereby alſo given, That for the encouraging of Perſons and Pariſhes to receive and imploy the Palatines during the time of Harveſt, or otherwiſe, Care ſhall be taken to provide a Fund for the Maintenance of ſuch of them as ſhall, by Sickneſs, or other Accidents, be rendred incapable of getting their Living by their Labour; and for the ſecuring ſuch Pariſhes as ſhall receive any of them, that they ſhall not become a Burthen or Charge to ſuch Pariſhes, by their being employed or ſettled there.

Lisbon, July 24. N. S. Sir John Jennings is arrived here from the Streights, who left all things at Barcelona in a very proſperous condition. The Army is in ſo good order, that his Catholick Majeſty will be able to act offenſively againſt the Enemy. Several Ships, laden with Corn, and bound from Barbary to France, have been lately intercepted. Letters from Villa Vicoſa of the twelfth Inſtant ſay, that our Army was marched into Quarters of Refreſhment; and that ſeveral Britiſh Regiments lay in the neighbourhood of that Place.

Berne, July 28. N. S. The ſix Deputies of the County of Tockenbourg, of whom three are Proteſtants, and three Roman Catholicks, have begun to lay their Grievances before the Diet of Baden. Among other things they complain, that the Abbot of St. Gall, notwithſtanding the contrary Orders of the preceding Diet, had laid up a great quantity of Proviſions and Ammunition in his Caſtle of Yberg. In the mean time the Popiſh Cantons endeavour to excuſe the Abbot, and extenuate his Neglect of that Order. Letters from Geneva ſay, that the numbers of the Malecontents in the Vivarez encreaſe every Day; and that they had a reſerved Body poſted at Gillot, to which Place they conveyed their Sick and Wounded. The reſt of their Troops were diſtributed in ſmall Bodies, for the conveniency of being ſupplied with Proviſions. They have not yet loſt any of their chief Leaders. Theſe Letters add, that the King's Forces, which were ſent to ſuppreſs theſe Malecontents, were encamped at Avroux, conſiſting of five thouſand Men; and that ſeveral large Detachments from them had been defeated, particularly a conſiderable Body in an Action of the ninth Inſtant.

Bruſſels, Auguſt 5. N. S. Our laſt Advices from Madrid ſay, that all the Troops under the Command of the Marquis de Bay were gone into Quarters of Refreſhment, except ſome Detachments which were appointed to intercept ſuch Convoys as might be ſent with Supplies to Olivença, and ſix Battalions of Guards which were ordered to March to Arragon. The Count d' Eſtaing has ſet out from the Court of Madrid towards France, and it is ſaid the Mareſchal de Bezons intends alſo to begin his Journey thither within few Days. Theſe Letters mention a diſcovery of a ſecret Intelligence which had been carried on in order to deliver Lerida into the Hands of his Catholick Majeſty, and report that ſeveral Perſons of the firſt Rank are ſuppoſed to have favoured that deſign.

Hague, Auguſt 6. N. S. The Marquis de Surville has offered to ſurrender the Cittadel of Tournay upon certain Conditions, and the Terms on which he inſiſts were communicated to the States by an Expreſs which arrived this Morning. The Marquis obliges himſelf by this Capitulation to deliver the Place into the Hands of the Allies on the 5th of September next, in caſe it ſhall not be relieved within that time; and further engages to deliver one of the Gates, and to admit three hundred Men to take Poſſeſſion of it, as ſoon as his Maſter's Approbation of this Treaty for the Place ſhall be returned, which Ratification he expected to receive on the eighth Inſtant. In the mean time all Acts of Hoſtility ſhall ceaſe between the Beſiegers and Beſieged. The States have thought fit to approve this Capitulation, and have ſent back their Ratifications of it by Expreſs. Advices from Savoy of the twenty ſixth of the laſt Month ſay, that Count Thaun had forced the Poſt of Monſtiers, and marched as far as Aiguebelle; and that the Enemy appeared to be in great apprehenſions from the different Movements which were made by the Forces of his Royal Highneſs. An Account of a compleat Victory obtained over the Swedes by the Muſcovites, is reported here with many Circumſtances of the Action: But there are Letters from Koningsberg of the twenty ſixth of the laſt Month, which are as particular in a Relation in favour of the Swedes. Theſe Advices ſay, that in this Engagement the King of Sweden having led on his Troops a ſecond time to the Charge, aſſaulted and took the Village of Pultawa; and add, that great part of his Ruſſian Majeſty's Infantry was cut off, in attempting to recover that Poſt. Letters from Copenhagen ſay, that the King of Denmark arrived there on the 26th of the laſt Month. Thoſe Advices inform us, that his Majeſty having paſſed through Renbourg, in his return from Italy, had created the Duke Adminiſtrator of Holſtein-Gottorp Knight of the Order of the Elephant; and that at the ſame time the King was pleaſed to give the Order of Dannebroek to Lieutenant-General Ranzau, to Monſieur Stucken his Majeſty's Envoy-Extraordinary in Holland, the Counſellor Roſencras, to Monſieur Lerche, to Monſieur Plugg, Steward of the Houſhold to King Auguſtus, to Major-General Crag, and to Major-General Schonfeld. They add, that Mr. Alefeild was appointed
